

Member of the Presidency of B-H Dr. Dragan Covic met with SFOR Commander

11.10.2004 0:00:00

Member of the Presidency of B-H Dr. Dragan Covic received today in Sarajevo, in opening visit, a Commander of SFOR for B-H General Steven Schook.

On this occasion Covic welcomed the new Commander of SFOR for B-H, General Steven Schook, emphasizing the importance of SFOR's role in building peace and stability in B-H, and also supporting defense reform conducting.

SFOR's support is very important for further activities in B-H's Armed Forces reorganization, for priority areas mine removing on the whole territory of our country, and also for fulfilling requirements for B-H joining NATO's program Partnership for Peace (PfP), Dr. Covic emphasized. General Schook expressed pleasure with achieved progress and success in conducting reforms, and also pointed out that SFOR will continue to support efforts of B-H's authorities for joining European and Euro-Atlantic integration.